

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATIONS AND COUNSELLING
FACULTY OF EDUCATION,
OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE-IFE.
B.A ED DEGREE EXAMINATION 2011/2012 RAIN SEMESTER
EFC 408: FAMILY, SEX AND MARITAL COUNSELLING

TIME ALLOWED: 2 HOURS

INSTRUCTION: ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS IN SECTIONS A & B

SECTION A

1. Briefly describe the concept of the 'family' from the psychological and sociological perspective.
2. State four functions of family in a typical African society.
3. In not more than a sentence define cohabitation.
4. Identify five forms of socially unacceptable sexual behaviours in African societies.
5. In a sentence define sex education
6. Differentiate between Cohabitation and Marriage
7. Masturbation, abstinence, pleasure and human sexual response are some of the subtopics under
8. Suggest four ways divorced parents can help their children to cope with the negative impact of divorce.
9. Indicate two primary sex characteristics in boys and girls.
10. State four reasons why young people might choose to abstain from sex.
11. Communication is essential in marriage, identify four benefits of marital communication
12. Give five reasons people often use to justify cohabitation
13. In Nigeria, there is widespread belief that young people should not openly discuss sexuality and related issues because such discussion are and must be regulated by the-----.
14. Identify six problems associated with the family in contemporary times.

SECTION B

- 1a. Apart from choice of career, choosing a marital partner is a crucial decision that requires the consideration of many issues, what would be your advice to anyone seeking to take this decision?. What factors are to be considered in choosing a marital partner?
- b. Highlight the major contents in a typical sex education programme
- 2a. Marital satisfaction is a function of many factors, explain these factors.
- b. Identify and discuss likely difficulties to be encountered in marriage, suggest ways such difficulties can be handled.