

FACULTY OF EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATIONS AND COUNSELLING
OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE-IFE
200712008 B.A/B. SC. EDUCATION RAIN SEMESTER DEGREE EXAMINATION
EFC 408: FAMILY, SEX AND MARITAL COUNSELLING

TIME ALLOWED: 2 Hours

INTRODUCTION. Answer ALL questions in sections A and B

SECTION A

1. In not more than a sentence state the major difference between rape and sexual harassment.
2. List four important ways of handling problems and difficulties in marriage.
3. What are the two major functions of sex?
4. Identify four reasons why young people engage in sex.
5. State two reasons why young people might have for choosing to abstain from sex.
6. A good definition of the family must include the concepts of ----- and -----
7. State two major types of family that is prominent in African traditional society.
8. What is menarche?
9. Indicate two primary sex characteristics in boys and girls.
10. In not more than three line define sex education
11. State two unwanted consequences of sexual behaviour.
12. Give three examples of sexual aberrations.
13. Suggest four ways divorced parents can help the affected children to cope.

SECTION B

1. (a) Identify and discuss briefly four problems associated with the family in contemporary times.
(b) Sex education could highten children's interest in 'immoral sex'. Give reasons why this may not be true.
2. (a) Maturity satisfaction is a function of many factors, List and explain these factors.
(b) Highlight the content of a sex education programme (the major heading only)
3. (a) List factors to be considered in choosing a marital partner.
(b) Marital communication is an important issue for a successful marriage, give four types of marital communication and also list other factors that are common problems for successful marriage.